

Task 1

Answer the following questions in English. You will hear the text three times.

Maximum score:

20 points

RIOTS

In this task you will hear an extract from a radio programme about riots in Britain. Based on the information you hear please, give short answers (maximum ten words) to the following questions. The first answer has been given to you as an example.

0.	When did the riots happen?	First week of August
1.	What importance do security cameras have?
2.	What were the grounds for arrests? Mention one.
3.	What was the most severe consequence?
4.	What event initiated the riots?
5.	How were shops involved?
6.	How did the government respond to the problem?
7.	What did the prime minister promise to remedy?
8.	What was the aim of the father of the Birmingham victim's speech?
9.	How did the government change the public services?
10.	According to Mr Cameron, what should schools improve?

Total points:

Task 2

Listen to the conversation and write the correct answer in the box. The first answer is given to you. You will hear the text three times.

Maximum score: 20 points

PIANO

A woman and a man are talking about learning and playing the piano.

	0.	There are ... myths about the piano.	A. no B. a couple of C. a few	B
	11.	You can pick up a piano for... .	A. a few pounds B. thousands of pounds C. free
	12.	Many think the piano equals	A. a challenge B. a few chords C. accompaniment
	13.	Learning the piano is	A. similar to the guitar B. very accessible C. best completed through books
	14.	Some pieces of music require	A. bands and singers B. a few cords C. all your fingers
	15.	The woman mentions that a pianist was ... during a performance.	A. slurring B. sacked C. drunk
	16.	Many professional musicians	A. teach themselves B. are also teachers C. leave early
	17.	The pianist mentioned never missed a	A. note B. tune C. beat
	18.	An evening around the piano is said to be	A. disturbing B. stimulating C. extremely pleasant
	19.	The man says the piano is thought to be	A. outdated B. classical C. very 21 st century
	20.	The piano is important to children because it is	A. technological B. very convenient C. engaging

Total points: